

WHY DO THE IB DIPLOMA?

- Statistics show that your daughter is highly likely to study, work or live in another country. The International Baccalaureate Diploma programme enables her to be an international citizen.
- The International Baccalaureate Diploma programme indicates to universities and employers that your daughter is an inquiring, knowledgeable and caring young person.
- Your daughter would be studying in a programme renowned for its quality, high standards and pedagogical leadership.
- The International Baccalaureate Diploma programme encourages your daughter to become an active, compassionate and lifelong learner.
- Your daughter will engage in creativity, action, service, individual research through the extended essay and an inquiry into the theory of knowledge.
- Queen Margaret College will offer an International Baccalaureate Diploma programme with a wide spectrum of academic subjects to cater for all students.
- Special service components which enable your daughter to choose to help in underdeveloped countries are being planned
- Language exchanges are being arranged to encourage students to see that one or more second languages are the key to understanding other cultures
