5KM TRAVEL CONSENT FOR SCHOOL TRIPS

Queen Margaret College's unique inner city site means that there are a number of locations nearby that can contribute a great deal to the learning process. Normally school trips are planned in advance and the consent slip is filled in by a parent several days before a trip.

There are times, however, when a teacher would like to make short excursions with some, or all, of the class and parental consent is also required for this. We are required to have on record your permission to take your daughter out on such supervised "spontaneous" trips within an approximate radius of 5km from the school. Your decision to give consent or decline consent will remain in force until your daughter leaves Queen Margaret College or until you signal otherwise in writing.
