Course details

The aim of this course is to be able to interact with Japanese speakers and use basic language competently. Students deliver a one minute speech in Japanese. Students write a variety of texts with the support of resources. A selection of evidence showcases the individual's final work.

Students will study the following topics:

- Relationships
- School
- Organising a trip to Japan
- Shopping, house, rules and health.
- Learn Hiragana, Katakana and 50 Kanji.

Course Information

- In 2019 Year 11 Japanese is an option subject.

Homework expectations

Your daughter should be learning at home for a total of at least 10 hours per week, across all subjects.

To achieve at a high level in this subject, students are expected to complete some homework during the week. The key to language learning is 'little and often'.

Homework might include:

- Learning a number of words, verbs or phrases
- Completion of assignments started in class
- Reading and grammar exercises to do or a short paragraph to write
- Before an assessment students will be expected to revise their notes or to practise their spoken Japanese
- Revision of vocabulary learned in class with www.languageperfect.com
- Catching up on work missed due to absence
- Carrying out a research task on the internet

Students will be subscribed to www.languageperfect.com and will receive a Genki workbook which accompanies the course. An approximate cost of $30 for the website and $50 for the workbook will be charged to the parents' or caregivers' school account.
